Alpha Alpha

Alpha Phi Alpha was the first intercollegiate Greek-letter fraternity in the United States established by African-American men. It was founded at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, by seven college men who felt the need for a strong bond of brotherhood. The visionary founders, known as the “Jewels” of the fraternity, were Henry Arthur Callis, Charles Henry Chapman, Eugene Kinckle Jones, George Biddle Kelley, Nathaniel Allison Murray, Robert Harold Ogle, and Vertner Woodson Tandy.

We are so proud of you and everything you have accomplished.

Love, Mom & Dad

Courtney Costello

Congratulations on your graduation. Your education has helped to define you. From the Louisiana School for Math, Science, and the Arts to the halls of Millsaps College, you have diligently completed these important milestones.

May these years be filled with fond memories, and may they serve as the strong foundation for a promising future.

We are thankful for the young lady you have become, and in our hearts, you will always be our little girl.

Good luck at LSU!

Love to you,
Mom and Dad
